

SIMON LÖFFLER – Senior Partner Goll Consulting

Simon focuses on strategy projects as a start to guide complex transformation processes and the associated organizational development on both national and international level. His belief is that culture & leadership, as well as market & customer orientation are essential components for success.

EXPERIENCE

15+ years of top management in over 20 countries

Senior Partner, Goll Consulting
Since 2024

Chief Sales Officer, Volkswagen Group Charging GmbH
2021 – 2023

VP International Markets & CEO innogy eMobility US E.ON SE (form. innogy SE)
2017 – 2021

Managing Director, Kiwigrid GmbH (an Aqton SE company)
2015 – 2017

Management Board Member, Görlitz AG Group
2007 – 2014

Offerus Consulting & Interim Management
Since 2007

CORE QUALIFICATIONS

- International cultural studies (Diplom Kulturwirt, University of Passau)
- Master Business Moderation incl. Large Group Facilitation

EXPERTISE

30+ years training & consultancy on international level

Strategy & Orientation

Development & operationalization of growth-oriented strategies and market-focus business models at national and international level.

Leadership & Collaboration

Extensive experience in leading and developing high-performing teams. Focus on empowering leaders, fostering team cohesion & establishing modern leadership approaches.

Transformation & Change

Practical Expert in designing and implementing complex transformation processes. With his strategic approach, he actively involves employees and ensures that changes are sustainably anchored.

Culture & Mindset

Designing agile and value-oriented corporate cultures. He supports organizations in establishing a growth-promoting mindset and in combining cultural transformations with business success in a targeted manner.